Dear Parents/carers

Guildford Lido visit

As part of the celebration of the year 6 leavers, it has become a tradition to visit a swimming pool and then have an activity afternoon back at school.

On Friday 19th July, we will leave school at 9.00am and head for the Guildford Lido for swimming and (hopefully) sunshine! Following this, the coaches will bring us back to school at 12.30pm, where we will sit down to eat our lunch on the field before taking part in activities during the afternoon. One of these activities will be shirt signing so we invite the children to bring a school shirt in if they would like to partake in this.

Every year we set aside a small amount of the money made during the Fiver Challenge to subsidise end of year treats. Due to the success of our previous Fiver Challenges, we are able to offer this trip free of charge. All we require is for the parent/guardian form, attached to this letter, to be filled in and handed back to school by Friday 28th June.

Children should arrive at school on this day with their swimwear underneath their choice of clothes.

Items to remember:

- Wear swimwear under a sensible choice of clothing, depending on the weather.
- Water resistant sun cream
- Towel
- Underwear for after swimming
- School shirt for signing (we can provide the children with felt tip pens but they may choose to bring a permanent marker e.g. a sharpie, should they wish)

Yours faithfully,

Mr Bostock
