Dear Parents and Carers,

Welcome to the third video in this online safety series, designed to support you with understanding the risks and issues children may face online and where to go for additional support.

Today we're going to consider risk and harm. Risk is the likelihood that harm may occur, and certain factors can increase or reduce that risk. We'll also look at the 4Cs: Content, Contact, Conduct and Commerce, they provide a straightforward way to understand online risk, whether or not you consider yourself tech-savvy.
