Dear Parents/Carers and Friends of our School Community,

I am writing to share an exciting opportunity for anyone who has ever considered a career in teaching or knows someone who might be interested in joining this rewarding profession. Please feel free to pass on to family and friends.

We work closely in partnership with South Farnham SCITT as our local School Centred Initial Teacher Training provider to support the training of new teachers in our community. South Farnham SCITT is hosting several information sessions this term for prospective primary and secondary teachers. These sessions are designed to help you explore the possibilities of a teaching career and understand the various pathways available.

Whether you're just beginning to explore the idea of teaching or you're ready to take the next step toward application, these sessions will provide valuable insights into:

- Different routes into teaching and which might suit you best
- Primary and secondary options, including the new SEND pathway
- Entry requirements and qualifications needed
- The application process explained step-by-step
- What teacher training with South Farnham SCITT involves
- The comprehensive training programme and partner schools
- How to fund your training year
